Alex Rivera

Alex is a 27-year-old guitarist (in a band) who plays late-night gigs a couple of times a week and also teaches private lessons to teens some afternoons. He is earning an online graduate degree in music history. Alex wakes up late when he can, listens to a lot of music, collects vinyl, and reads a lot. He frequently hosts impromptu small, relaxed hangouts. He likes a home that feels lived-in and keeps active materials visible; he stays generally tidy without being fussy. He has a 6-year-old chihuahua named Bowie. [he/him • 6'3"]
